Preliminary Protocol
on International Educational Cooperation Between

Fatih University
(Istanbul, Turkey)

&

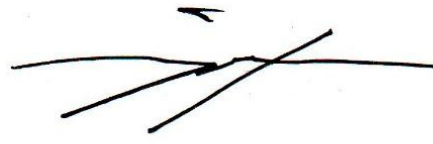

Galuh University
(Ciamis, West Java, Indonesia)

In order to promote the existing cultural and educational cooperation between Turkey and Indonesia; Fatih University and Galuh University have agreed on the attached protocol on educational and scientific cooperation.

Turkish Higher Educational Council (YÖK) requires Turkish Universities to get the approval of YÖK before signing international educational protocols with foreign universities. Therefore, protocol will become effective with the signatures of representatives of both Universities after the YÖK approval procedure is complete. Any required amendments on the protocol resulting from the approval procedure will be made by the consent of both parties.
