

PREFACE

All praise and gratitude be to Allah SWT for His grace and guidance, by which the author was finally able to complete this paper entitled “Exploring AI Literacy Among EFL University Students in Generating Research Proposal Topics”. Prayers and peace be upon the great Prophet Muhammad SAW, his family, his companions, and all Muslims who follow his teachings until the end of time.

This paper is submitted as one of the requirements for achieving the Sarjana Pendidikan degree in English Education Study Program at Galuh University.

In preparing this paper, the author encountered many obstacles. However, with the help, guidance, and cooperation of various parties, this paper was finally completed well. Therefore, with all due respect, the author would like to express sincere gratitude to:

1. Dr. Li. Bambang Ruby, S.Pd.I., M.Pd., the Head of English Education Program as well as the author’s first supervisor, who has patiently guided and motivated the author during the preparation of this paper.
2. Didih Faridah, S.Pd., M.Pd., as the author’s second supervisor, who has provided valuable input and advice, helping the author to complete this paper.
3. All the lecturers of Department of English Education, who have provided knowledge, and motivation to the author.
4. The participants in this research, who have sincerely taken the time and agreed to participate in the author’s research.

5. Myself, Thank you for not giving up and for having the courage to move forward despite fear, self-doubts, exhaustion, and many more difficulties that were encountered during this process. Thank you for your consistent efforts to move forward despite difficult days that might have come your way. With this paper, it is a reminder that everything was worth it.
6. The author's parents, the author's beloved mother, Atik, and the author's beloved father, Maman. Thank you for your unwavering love, every drop of sweat, every prayer that never ceases in every prostration, and the moral and material sacrifices you have always made for the author, and for always fighting for the author. The author dedicates this work as a testament of love and the first step towards making Mamah and Bapak proud.
7. The author's siblings, cousins, relatives, and extended family, whose names cannot all be mentioned it in individually, for the sincere prayers, encouragement, support, and constant care throughout the author's journey.
8. Members of Ponyoyo: Astri Yulia Astuti, Laura Mayla Tanaya, Nazla Syifa Azzahra, Tusriyah, and Yasmin Kamilia Az-Zahra, who have accompanied and helped the author from the first year until now.
9. A friend in Colombia, for always believing in the author's strength, encouraging her to always keep going, bring her comfort as well as peace whenever the days felt especially difficult.

10. The dearest cats and betta fish, who always brought happiness, comfort, laughter, and eased the load of the most exhausting days.
11. Two author's favorite football clubs, Chelsea FC and Manchester United. Two clubs that have taught her what is the true meaning of patience, reminded to celebrate every small victory. Also, provided moments of joy and escape throughout the long journey of completing this paper.
12. All the songs, music, and artists whose works accompanied countless hours of reading, writing, thinking, and revising. Thank you for making every late-night writing session feel a little less lonely.
13. Finally, to someone who has not yet been introduced into the author's life by Allah SWT. The author hopes that when the day comes that we finally meet, you will know that even before meeting you, the author had already been working hard to achieve one of her biggest dreams. May Allah bring us together at the right time as the best versions of ourselves.
