

PREFACE

With the grace and blessing of Allah SWT, the writer has finally completed this research paper entitled The Effectiveness of Modified “ABC Lima Dasar” Game in Improving Eleventh-Grade Students' Vocabulary Mastery: A Quasi-Experimental Design at a Senior High School. This paper is submitted as a partial fulfillment of the requirements for attaining the Sarjana Pendidikan degree in English Education.

The writer realizes that this research would not have been completed without the support, guidance, and encouragement from many individuals. Therefore, the writer would like to express her sincere gratitude to:

1. Dr. Li. Bambang Ruby S., M.Pd., Head of the English Education Study Program, for his support and motivation during the completion of this paper.
2. Dr. Ratnawati, S.Pd., M.Pd. her first supervisor, for her valuable guidance, constructive suggestions, and continuous encouragement throughout the research process.
3. Didih Faridah, S.Pd., M.Pd. her second supervisor, for her insightful feedback, corrections, and assistance in improving this paper.
4. All lecturers of the English Education Study Program at Universitas Galuh, for sharing their knowledge, experience, and inspiration during her academic journey.
5. The principal, teachers, staff, and students of the selected senior high school in Ciamis for their participation and support during this study.

6. To her mother, on her road to heaven, no words will ever be enough to express how grateful she is to have you in her life. Thank you for giving her life and bringing her into this world. Thank you for your endless love, prayers, and for always being the safest place where she can find comfort. Whenever life becomes difficult, she knows she can always come home to you. It breaks her heart to see how hard you still work while she is still chasing the dreams you have always shared. If she achieves her dreams one day, it will not be because she is extraordinary, but because your prayers have always guided and protected her. Even if she were given the chance to live this life a thousand times, she would still choose you to be her mother, her home, and her greatest blessing. She loves you so much, Mama.
7. To her hero, her dad, no one in this world could ever compare to you. She is who she is today because of your hard work, strength, and unconditional love. She will always cherish the beautiful memories you shared when she was little, from the times you carried her from the TV room, taught her to ride a bicycle and a motorcycle, and made breakfasts and simple meals with love. She also remembers how you celebrated her achievements, took her to school, and always supported her dreams. Even now, at twenty-two years old, she is still your little princess. You may not always express your love with words or hugs, but she has always felt it through your care, protection, and sacrifices. She will keep working hard until the day she can say, "Dad, you don't have to work so hard anymore. It's time for you to enjoy your life. Your daughter can take care of you now." She loves you so much, Dad.

8. Her deepest gratitude to everyone who has contributed, directly or indirectly, to the completion of this paper. May this study provide benefits for future researchers, students, and readers.

The author admits that this research still has several limitations and areas for improvement. Therefore, any constructive critiques and suggestions are highly appreciated to enhance future work. Hopefully, this study will provide a positive contribution and serve as a useful benchmark for future developments in English education.
