

PREFACE

With the guidance and blessing of Allah SWT, the researcher succeeded in compiling a thesis entitled “Students' Code-Switching through Trilingual Learning Materials in English Reading: Evidence from Classroom Observation and Teachers’ Perceptions”. This thesis is submitted as one of the requirements to obtain a Bachelor of Education degree in English Education.

This achievement would not have been possible without the invaluable support and encouragement from various parties. Their contributions have been instrumental in transforming this paper from a distant ideal to a tangible reality. The researcher would like to express her deepest gratitude to the following people:

1. Dr.Li. Bambang Ruby Sugiarto, S.Pd.I., M.Pd., as the Head of the English Education Study Program, who has provided encouragement and motivation to complete this thesis.
2. Wawan Tarwana, S.Pd., M.Hum., the first supervisor, who has provided guidance, direction, and motivation during the process of writing this thesis.
3. Rina Herlina, M.Pd., the second supervisor, who has provided valuable input, advice, and corrections.
4. All lecturers of the English education program at Universitas Galuh for sharing their knowledge, experience, and inspiration throughout the researcher’s academic journey.

5. The principal, teachers, and students from one of the selected Islamic boarding schools in Ciamis who agreed to participate in this study and facilitate the research process.
6. To my parents, who have always been my greatest source of encouragement and motivation, enabling me to reach this stage. Thank you also to my friends who have always been there for me throughout this process for the camaraderie, kindness, support, and unforgettable memories we have shared. The encouragement you have given has made this journey far more meaningful.
7. I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my supervisor, who has provided patient guidance, constructive feedback and encouragement throughout the completion of this final project, as well as to all the lecturers in this department who have shown great dedication and made a significant contribution to my academic journey.
