

PREFACE

All praise is due to Allah SWT, the researcher would like to express her deepest gratitude to the almighty Allah SWT, who has given guidance, blessing, and mercy to her in completing this paper. Salam and Shalawat are addressed to the final, chosen, religious messenger, the prophet Muhammad S.A.W.

The researcher realized that in carrying out the research and writing this paper, many people have contributed their valuable suggestion, guidance, assistance, support, and advice for the completion of this paper. Therefore, she would like to thank:

1. Dr. Li. Bambang Ruby S., S.Pd.I., M.Pd. The head of English education program of FKIP Galuh University of Ciamis.
2. Dr. Li. Bambang Ruby S., S.Pd.I., M.Pd., the first supervisor who has given his valuable time and patience, to support assistance and guidance to finish this paper.
3. Dedeh Rohayati, S.Pd., M.Pd., the second supervisor for her guidance, advice, and encouragement during the completion of this paper.
4. All the lecturers of the Department of English Education who always gave motivation and valuable knowledge during her study.
5. The researcher's beloved grandparents and parents, who have always been by the researcher's side, offering everything they could, continuously praying, supporting, advising, and believing in the researcher. None of this would have been possible without them.

6. The researcher's beloved mother, who passed away when the researcher was still a child. Although she has not been physically present for most of the researcher's life, her love and memory have remained a quiet source of strength throughout this journey. Though she and the researcher are now separated by different worlds, the researcher hopes this paper can still be a way of making her proud and happy, wherever she is now.
7. The researcher's one and only dear younger sibling, Muhammad Naufal Dzikri, who was in the 2nd semester of college during the completion of this paper. May all the best hopes and the dreams the researcher could not achieve be fulfilled through him, and may he live a better life than anyone else.
8. The researcher's beloved friends “Ponyonyo”, Astri Yulia Astuti, Laura Mayla Tanaya, Nazla Syifa Azzahra, Risma Rismayanti, and Tusriyah, have shared every laugh and every tear with me, making countless memories together since the very beginning of university years.
9. The researcher would also like to thank the songs of NIKI and Reality Club, which quietly accompanied her throughout college and the process of writing this paper. Their music was always there during the late nights spent working on this paper, turning moments of stress and self-doubt into something easier to carry. Every lyric felt like a quiet reminder that it was okay to feel lost sometimes, as long as she kept moving forward. In their own way, these songs became a companion that made this long journey felt a little less lonely.

10. Lastly, I would like to thank myself for staying strong and continuing this journey until the end. Thank you for your patience, hard work, and determination in facing every challenge along the way. Despite the doubts, struggles, and difficult moments, you never stopped trying and kept moving forward. This achievement is a result of your persistence, and I am proud of how far you have come

Finally, the researcher hopes this paper can be useful for the researcher herself and for the readers in general. She also welcomes suggestions and corrections to make the paper come out better.
